

Mark E. Stowers

Attorney at Law

Mark Stowers is the managing partner of the Atlanta office of BridgehouseLaw. Mr. Stowers' main practice focus is in the areas of corporate, energy, financing, international, private equity and real estate law.

He has over 20 years cross border transactional experience and has assisted clients in the formation of limited liability companies, limited partnerships and corporations as well as in real estate acquisition, financing and sale including fund investments.

Mark Stowers has a wealth of experience in real estate matters, especially bridge/mezzanine and senior secured loans; leasing industrial, office, and retail property; and the acquisition, financing and sale of apartment projects. In addition, Mr. Stowers advises on the purchase and sale of coal, oil and gas assets.

Based on his experience as a principal in energy and real estate investments, Mark Stowers provides clients with both legal and practical business solutions.

Focus of practice

- Corporate
- Energy
- Financing
- International
- Private Equity
- Real Estate

Career

- 2010 Managing Partner BridgehouseLaw Atlanta
- Since 1999 The Courtland Company, LLC
- 1994-1999 Rückel & Collegen (Atlanta)
- 1988-1994 Troutman Sanders
- AV Rated Attorney by Martindale Hubble

Contact

Telefon: +1 404 8855320
Fax: +1 404 8855329
mark.stowers@bridgehouselaw.us

1170 Peachtree Street N.E.
Suite 1750 - The Proscenium
Atlanta, GA 30309
U.S.A.

Languages

- German
- English
- French

Mark E. Stowers

Attorney at Law

Education

- 1988 JD Cum Laude, Mercer University School of Law (Law Review, Merit Scholar)
- 1985 BA Economics University of Georgia
- 1984 University of Paris

Memberships

- Georgia Bar
- Urban Land Institute